

7 | 11

Château Les Carrasses, Languedoc

Warm Mediterranean sunshine, luxurious accommodation and the opportunity to enjoy some quality family time in France's sunniest region, Château Les Carrasses  in the French Languedoc is a utopia for families. Nestled among vines, the 19th Century vineyard estate offers a choice of stylish self-catering accommodation, beautiful countryside surroundings with hotel facilities such as a heated infinity pool, tennis and volleyball courts, a French Brasserie and Wine Bar. The exciting array of family-friendly activities includes cycle rides through the vines, French cookery classes, beach trips, self-driving boats down the Canal du Midi and picnics in national parks. The kids' Club is open during the summer holidays so parents can kick back and enjoy time soaking up the rays by the infinity pool while sampling the extensive Languedoc wine list. A two-bedroom house with pool (sleeps four) costs from 335 Euro per night.